

Kate Ryan is a Consultant Haematologist at Manchester Royal Infirmary and has over 30 years' experience of caring for patients with haemoglobinopathies. She is currently HCC Lead for the NW sickle cell and North England thalassaemia/rare anaemia clinical networks.

Previous positions to improve care for patients including production of clinical guidelines and standards, lead for adult haemoglobinopathy peer review programmes and Chair of the CRG (2015-2019).